

WOMEN'S DAY

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 10, 2013

REV. DR. SHARON DOWNER

WOMEN'S DAY

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 10, 2013

REV. DR. SHARON DOWNER

LENOX ROAD BAPTIST CHURCH

“Pastor and People walking Together”

25 Years of Dreams and Vision”

BCPC Fall Conference
Theme: Courageous Women Facing Challenges and making Choices

Donation $15.00

Date: November 9th 2013
Time: 8.30-3.00

*Place: Bedford Central
Presbyterian Church
1200 Dean Street, Brooklyn NY 11216*

Dr. Clive E. Neil, Senior Pastor
Rev: Frederick C. Ennette, Sr.

Dr. Clive E. Neil, Senior Pastor

“3 Mindset Every Woman Should Process”

This seminar will focus on the importance of the mind that controls behavior. What mindset should we possess that could determine the kind of persons we become. Let s explore the mind from God’s perspective .

Carrolle Chapman

“How To Experience a Financial Makeover”

Want to see more of your money work for you? This seminar will definitely change you way of thinking and you’ll become a new you. Let your thoughts be open to possibilities of how your money can take a turn for the better with the (3)Ds- Discipline, Determination and Diligence.

Shawn Forde

Stephen Corbin

“How to live a healthy life God’s way”

Living healthy God’s way will deal with the simple things God provides us with everyday to live. We as God’s creation will explore how we can use Sunlight, Air, Water, combined with diet and exercise to maximize our potential to living healthier lives. The workshop will also entail maintaining a healthy mind because being healthy is a complete state of both physical and mental being.

Latashia Small

“Making Choice by Utilizing Mentors”

When faced with challenges and difficult choices, it is imperative for one to seek counsel from some one that it wise and seasoned. Wewill discuss different examples of this principle at work.

“General Session”

Joan Bernard-Austin is the fourth of seven children, born in Clarendon, on the Island of Jamaica to Mrs. Cynthia Bernard and the late Wilfred Bernard. Joan migrated to the United States to join her family in Brooklyn. She has lived and worked in several other States such as Texas/Oklahoma; Illinois/Missouri; Kentucky and Indiana.

She currently resides in Brooklyn, New York with two of her three sons. Joan has always attended Sunday-School and church even as a toddler along with her older siblings. She worships at Trinity Baptist Church for over 20 years and is a licensed minister, Adult Sunday School teacher, member of the Voices of Praise and the Sanctuary Choir, and the Renovations Committee. In addition, she fellowships and shares with a group of non-denominational Christians in Bible Study at UNISEF in Manhattan, through ministry and giving praise to the one true King, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Besides serving in the Church, Joan is currently employed as Assistant Manager with an Economic Development Corporation for over 20 years. She is a part-time student at NYACK College where she intends to complete her Bachelors Degree. The most gratifying things in her life to date is ministering and sharing her life with her family and friends.

Joan has been involved in outreach ministries working with family and friends to provide blankets and other items to different nursing home throughout Brooklyn and Manhattan while ministering through music to the residence and staff. In addition, she has worked with family members to provide food for the homeless on different occasions in the Brooklyn area.

She has a passion for ministry and mission work. Joan hopes to attend Seminary with her focus being in women’s ministry. She is a motivational speaker who always inspires her audience regardless of age. She is a prayer warrior, a true believer, lover of God and His words, fervent in reading the word and use as her proclamation (Proverbs 3:5-6: 5Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. 6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths).