

Mondays:
Miracles of Jesus
7:00-8:30

Elder Wilma Hughes

Come let us take a spiritual journey in the New Testament where we will gain knowledge about this Divine Operation that transcends what is normally perceived as natural law and which cannot be explained upon any natural basis.

God is Able to Take Your Character and Polish it Up!
(Men Only)
7:00 – 8:30

Rev. Frederick C. Ennette, Sr. & Elder Garfield Mason, Instructors

Let us come together as men of God and explore some of the personalities that God employed though they were imperfect, even as we are. They are great examples of how God in Christ is able to "polish us up." Remember, we are clay on the "Potter's wheel."

Tuesdays:
Computer for Beginners
7:00-8:30

Janelle Jacque, Instructor

This course is for first time students or those that are still not comfortable tackling using a computer, searching the web, e-mail, etc. Come receive hands on experience and be set free from fearing a much utilized instrument of our time.

Spanish for Beginners:
6:30-8:00

Elena McLeod, Vilma Smith, Oneida Ford, Instructors

Haven't you ever desired to learn a second language? This class will present you opportunity to embrace a language widely spoken in the New York metropolitan area and beyond. Learn how to say hello, how are you? Learn how to say thank you, open the door/window and other everyday functioning words.

Wednesdays:
“God’s Presence and His Glory”
7:30-8:30

Minister Sadie Vaughan Worrell

We may have God’s presence, but do we want His glory? Join us in this Bible study to understand the difference between the two and learn how to move from the level of presence to the heights of glory.

“Heroes and Heroines: How to Make the Hall of Faith”:
7:00-8:30

Dr. Clive E. Neil & Keshia Nembhard, Instructors

The world focuses on various kinds of heroes. What defines a hero to any individual or society says much about what is deemed important. Come and discover God’s list of heroes and heroines and learn why they were chosen. Be surprised and challenged on this journey.

Thursdays:
What You Need to Know: Good Practices for Parents of School Aged Children
6:00-7:30

Trecia Grant, Instructor

This class will educate parents on strategies they can use to better educate themselves and their child. The class will examine the ins and outs of the NYC school system from the point of view of the teacher.

Reconciliation: 7:00-8:30

Pastor Jenny Small, Instructor

This 6-week hands on course will teach “Reconciliation” in alignment with the written word of God, as a tool to equip us, the believer, in order that our approach to bring resolve would be that of Christ-like effectiveness.

Therapy through the Needle
7:00 – 8:30

Patricia Gibbs & Yvonne Moore, Instructors

It has been shown and proven that the art of knitting and/or crouching helps to regulate one’s blood pressure; it lowers one’s anxiety; it has a calming effect. Art therapy also helps one be creative in making doilies, scarves, gloves, hats, etc. Join us as we share with you the art of knitting and crouching.

Excel for Beginners/Dummies
7:00-8:30PM,
David Goodman, Instructor

Course Objective: This course is for those that want to learn Excel as a business or office application. It will begin with basic Excel principles. At the end of the course participants will be able to set up practical spreadsheets and graphs for applications in business or personal use.

Friday
Ballroom Dancing

7:30-9:00 Virginia Sue Carrington & Co., Instructors

Has the sophistication and elegance of watching others dance around the floor captured your imagining yourself participating in the same fashion? Here is your opportunity! Come and learn how to sashay around the glamorous ballrooms with grace and poise.

*Bedford Central Presbyterian Church
1200 Dean Street *Brooklyn, N.Y. 11216
Dr. Clive E. Neil, Senior Pastor*

*Rev. Frederick C. Ennette, Sr.
Pastor of Spirituality & Discipleship*

*Academy of Christian Development
Spring 2016 - April 11th - May 13th*

Blessed by God is not by your works, not an entitlement, nor can it be earned. It is a gift from God. You're blessed to be a blessing to others. When God blesses you, don't curse your blessings because you did not honor him when you chose to complain. Be a blessing to others. Glorify Him.

